Dear Parent/Carer

College Closure – Thursday 30 June 2011

As you may be aware, following a national ballot of members, the National Union of Teachers (NUT) and the Association of Teachers and Lecturers (ATL) will be holding a one-day strike on Thursday 30 June 2011.

Staff at Neale Wade Community College will be supporting the strike action on that day, and as such, the expected absence of teaching staff will make it impossible for the college to function safely and effectively.

I am therefore informing you that the college will be closed for all students on Thursday 30 June 2011.

I realise that the strike action and closure of the college will cause disruption, but as you will appreciate, the health and safety of students, and the inability to run a coherent timetable with very few staff gives me no choice but to close the college.

I apologise for the inconvenience caused but feel sure you will understand the reason for my decision which is unavoidable due to the circumstances. Further updates on the situation can be obtained from the college website.

Please note that the Year 10 Fenland Women of Achievement trip to Octavia Hill House will NOT go ahead. It will be rescheduled at a later date.

Thank you for your understanding, cooperation and support.

Yours faithfully

Mr T Hitch
