Dear Parents/Carers

I write to confirm the college opening dates for the remainder of this academic year 2010/11 and the academic year 2011/12 which starts in September.

In light of the Building Schools for the Future programme, slight adjustment to our opening times will have to be made.

The first phase of the new building will be available to the college in mid-August 2011, which will mean movement and early closure at the end of this term and a later opening to students in September. I hope that you will agree that the arrangements that were followed last year have led to minimal disruption for students and hopefully the same will be said of the following arrangements.

The college will be closed from Monday 30 May to Friday 3 June 2011 for half term, as previously published.

The Summer term will end to students on Wednesday 20 July 2011, when the process for moving from old buildings to the first phase of new buildings can be started.

In order to ensure that all the facilities are ready for Autumn term 2011, the college will open to students on Thursday 8 September, thus allowing staff to complete the moving process on Monday 5 September, followed by 2 training days for the staff to be aware of the logistics of the new building and to prepare for the new academic year.

The staff training days for 2011/12 are therefore:

Tuesday 6 September 2011
Wednesday 7 September 2011
Tuesday 3 January 2012
Monday 16 April 2012
Monday 23 July 2012

Please find overleaf a full list of school term dates for 2011/12.

Yours faithfully

Mr T Hitch
